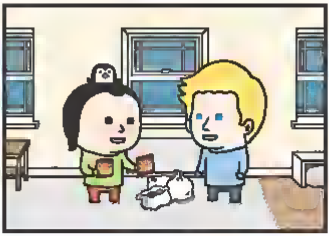
A Spicy Ramyun

There are fad food or products among people all the time.

However, it's hard for me to join in that trend.

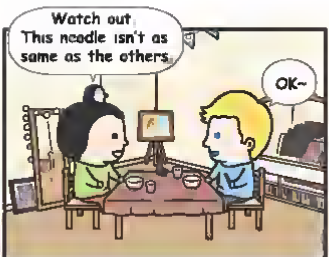
Then one day,
I went to a Korean supermarket with Mev.

I found a ramyun that
I'd wanted to try for a long time.



So that evening,
we decided to taste the ramyun.

People said it's really spicy, but I'll add all the sauce to taste it properly
Blup blup

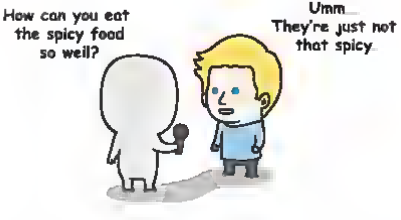


Watch out. This needle isn't as same as the others.
OK~

In fact, I can't eat spicy food very well.

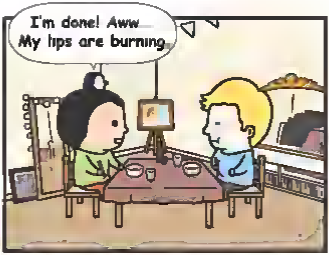
I couldn't eat
any more of the ramyun

So I needed to pour some water on it to make it less spicy.

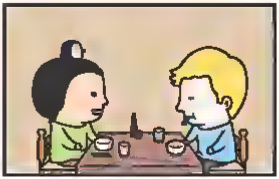


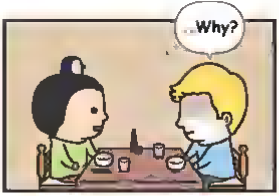
Unlike me,
Mev can eat spicy food very well even though he is a westerner.

He just carried on eating the ramyun.



I finished my ramyun before Mev, and he had only one mouth full left.





Seriously,...

... he was crying.

SPICY!!!!
